San Joaquin County Board of Supervisor Tom Patti to Host Multiple PG&E Public Safety Power Shutoff Neighborhood Town Halls
Are You Prepared?

STOCKTON, CA – San Joaquin County Board of Supervisor Tom Patti invites you to one of the below, upcoming Neighborhood Town Halls throughout the month of July on the topic of PG&E's imminent Public Safety Power Shutoff(s).

Specifically, the current protocols and preparedness. This is a subject that will effect virtually everyone in San Joaquin County with the coming wildfire season, as PG&E just recently altered the way that they are working wildfires. We are glad to share the message of preparedness. Select venues will also have a Fire Department, Law Enforcement & OES Presentation as well. There will be a Q&A period at each Town Hall.

Supervisor Patti is going forward in an effort to get the word out.
