

PEDIATRIC TRAUMA/ TRANSPORT OF THE CRITICAL PEDIATRIC PATIENT

Description: Pediatric Trauma: Trauma is the leading cause of death in the pediatric population. This course gives an overview of the kinematics and evaluation of the pediatric trauma patient.

Transport of the Critical Pediatric Patient: This course provides in-hospital personnel an overview of transport process from start to finish, including stabilization and preparation for transport.

Target Group: ED Nurses & physicians, Pediatric nurses, Float Pool, Open to all nurses; EMS personnel, Paramedics

Instructor(s) : REACH Medical Flight Group
Course Coordinator: Eric Rogers

Date: Wednesday, February 24th

Time: 0800-1200

Location: SJMC Auditorium

Credits: 4 CEU's to be awarded by REACH

Fee: Free

Registration: E-mail: education.secretaries@chw.edu give registration information (Name, Lawson ID #, Department, and two Phone #'s) or contact the Education Dept. at 467-6331

Coordinator: Sarah Solberg, RN, MSN, CNS, Emergency Department

St. Joseph's Medical Center

A member of CHW

CEU's will be awarded by REACH Air Medical for nurses and EMS providers.