

Before the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Joaquin, State of California

RESOLUTION

R-04- 484

Resolution Initiating San Joaquin County's "Safely Surrendered Baby Campaign" and Designating New Safe Haven Sites

WHEREAS, on January 1, 2001, California enacted a law that provides for the health and safety of unwanted newborn children, California's Safely Surrendered Baby law; and

WHEREAS, the law allows an individual to confidentially surrender an unharmed newborn three days old or younger at any hospital emergency room or other designated safe haven site without fear of criminal prosecution; and

WHEREAS, a new California campaign initiated in 2002, entitled "No Shame, No Blame, No Names" is aimed at informing the public of the State's Safely Surrendered Baby law; and

WHEREAS, the Statewide campaign has adopted a blue-and-white "Safe Haven" emblem, which depicts an infant on an outstretched hand, that will be displayed at legal drop-off sites in California; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of San Joaquin County, State of California, does hereby initiate a Countywide "No Shame, No Blame, No Names" campaign to inform the residents of San Joaquin County of the Safely Surrendered Baby law; and
