

Exhibit Agreement and Basic Rules

The Exhibitor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the State of California, County of San Joaquin, National Eligibility Workers Association, their officers, agents, servants and employees from any and all claims, causes of action and suits accruing or resulting from any damage, injury or loss to any person or persons, including but not limited to persons to whom the Exhibitor may be liable under any Workman’s Compensation law and Exhibitor himself and from any loss, damage, cause of action, claims or suits for damages, including but not limited to loss of property, goods, wares or merchandise, caused by, arising out of or in any way connected with the exercise by the Exhibitor of the privileges herein granted.

It is mutually understood and agreed that no alteration or variation of the terms of this contract shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by the parties hereto, and that no oral understanding or agreements not incorporated herein and no alterations or variations of the terms hereof, unless made in writing between the parties hereto, shall be binding on all of the parties.

The County of San Joaquin and the National Eligibility Workers Association will NOT provide any watchman services and shall assume no responsibility for loss or damage to the property of Exhibitors. Small articles easily removed or particularly fragile articles or displays should be put away for safe keeping by Exhibitor after the closing hour. Do not leave your booth unattended at any time. Protect small valuable items by covering them when you leave the building each night.

The Exhibitor is entirely responsible for the space allotted to him/her and agrees to reimburse the County for any damage to the floor, walls or equipment used in connection with the space allotted to the Exhibitor, reasonable wear and tear excepted.
