

NOTICE:
Public Invited to Town Hall on Voter's Choice Act
Share your opinions about voting in San Joaquin County
Every VOTE Counts. Every VOICE Counts.

- San Joaquin County is considering moving to a new voting model where every voter would:
 - be mailed an official ballot
 - have access to countywide vote centers and drop boxes
- This new voting model, under the Voter's Choice Act (VCA) would eliminate traditional neighborhood polling places and would offer new options
- No decisions about the VCA have been made for San Joaquin County
- Share your opinions directly with the County at Town Halls conducted by the Registrar of Voters
