Hi Melinda. Thanks for all your great efforts today! Just wanted to let you know that after conferring with my client that we are withdrawing our request for a recount for the Board of Education District 3 seat. We will continue with the AD13 recount. So we will not need any of the Board of Education folks there tomorrow, or the related support staff (the sign language interpreters).

Separately, after we complete the review of the challenged ballots that are currently under review, I would respectfully ask that we open those envelopes and review those ballots. In my experience that tends to help people make decisions about whether to continue or not. Once people see a trend heading in a particular direction, they are more apt to come to a conclusion and sometimes that means withdrawing the recount request altogether.

Thanks again. See you tomorrow morning.
