#2575

A. PURPOSE

The County of San Joaquin maintains and promotes a policy of equal employment opportunity and is committed to maintaining a work environment that is free from discrimination. The County of San Joaquin, its managers, employees, agents, and volunteers will not discriminate against any employee, contractor, subcontractor, vendor, or client because of age, ancestry, color, creed, marital status, medical condition (cancer or genetic characteristics), national origin, physical or mental disability, political affiliation or belief, pregnancy, race, religion, sex or sexual orientation.

This policy shall apply to all employment actions including, but not limited to: recruitment, testing, hiring, training opportunities, promotion, demotion, transfer, layoff, discipline, termination, salary and benefits, and participation or appointment to all County boards and commissions. All employment decisions shall be made on the basis of individual qualifications, bona fide occupational qualifications for the job in question, and the feasibility of any necessary job accommodations.

The employment goal of San Joaquin County is to develop an employee population that is representative of the general population of San Joaquin County. To this end, San Joaquin County will encourage members of protected groups, including ethnic minorities, females, and persons with disabilities, to apply for employment. The County will take positive measures toward eliminating artificial barriers to employment and achieving equal opportunity through its continued implementation and coordination of the County's Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Plan, and through its review and evaluation of hiring and promotional policies and procedures.

An employee, job applicant, contractor, vendor, or client who believes he/she has been discriminated against, as defined in Section A above, is encouraged to immediately report the complaint to the appropriate supervisor, manager, Department EEO Coordinator, department head, or to the County EEO Office. A violation of this policy will receive prompt and appropriate action.

Complaints of discrimination from employees and job applicants shall be processed in accordance with Civil Service Rule 20. Acts of retaliation are subject to appropriate corrective action, up to and including termination. However, if the County determines that an individual intentionally provided false information regarding a complaint, corrective action up to, and including termination may be taken against the person who gave the false information.
