San Joaquin County Board of Supervisors Recognize Raymond McCray

Serving 36 Years on the San Joaquin County Employee Retirement Association Board of Directors

STOCKTON – At their meeting Tuesday, August 18, 2026, the San Joaquin County Board of Supervisors recognized longtime public servant Raymond McCray, honoring his dedicated service for more than three decades of committed service, faithfully carrying out fiduciary responsibilities on the San Joaquin County Employee Retirement Association (SJCERA) Board of Directors.

City of Tracy Treasurer since 1995, Mr. McCray is a graduate of San Joaquin Delta and Whittier College's and has completed certificate courses at Wharton and Hass Business School's. The Board of Supervisors appointed Ray to serve on the SJCERA Board of Directors in 1990, where he would perform in leadership roles to include chairman.

Ray's professional and community involvement has included; president of the State Association of County Retirement Systems, advisory member of the Finance Committee of the Community Foundation of San Joaquin, member of the San Joaquin County Schools Foundation Board, former Tracy City Councilman, Community Action Council president, Chamber of Commerce Director, Merchant Services Credit Bureau director, and a member of the Agricultural Association board.

Ray also spent three years as an aide to the San Joaquin County Board of Supervisors, and several years as a legislative assistant at the State Capitol.

In 2017, Ray received a Lifetime Achievement Award from the State Association of County Retirement Systems.

Afterward, Supervisor Rickman stated, "Ray's many years of dedicated service exemplify the very best of public service. His knowledge, sound judgment, and unwavering integrity were invaluable to the Retirement Board. His commitment to accountability, transparency, and responsible stewardship helped safeguard the resources entrusted to the Board and strengthen the retirement security of its members and beneficiaries."
