RANKING STATUS REQUEST FORM

This form is used to request your current ranking on an active Civil Service Eligible List. Candidates may request this information at any time during the lifetime of the list (approximately 9 months from the date of establishment). Human Resources will not provide any ranking information over the phone. All ranking requests must be submitted in writing. Please complete the following form and return to Human Resources for processing and allow one week for processing.

Ranking status information may be provided via e-mail, interoffice mail or US mail. Please indicate how you would like to receive the ranking status information:

Note: Your standing (rank) may change on a continuous basis for several reasons.

- A change of status could result if an eligible: is hired, removed, or reinstated to the list.
- Continuous testing of new candidates in the same class title will result in the integration of lists (names of the new eligibles will be integrated with the list of existing eligibles).
- Civil service lists are active for nine months unless extended by the department.

☐

The examination you requested rank status information for is currently a classification that falls under the "Rule of the List." All names of eligibles who successfully pass the examination process are referred to the hiring department. There are no ranks assigned to classifications that have been designated to be certified as "Rule of the List."
