Conversion of your Group Term Life Insurance coverage

Protect your family. Protect your home. Protect your children’s education. Settle final expenses.

Why should I convert my life insurance coverage now?

As the average cost of college tuition increases and funeral expenses continue to rise, this is a good time to review your life insurance needs – for you and for those you love.

Don’t let the excuse that life insurance is too expensive stop you from converting your coverage. Not having enough insurance protection could be more costly to your family, and the assets you have worked so hard to protect.

Life insurance can play a central role in a complete financial plan. Whether you are single with financial responsibilities, married with children, have kids in college, or provide care for aging parents, insurance can help protect what you value most – no matter what life stage you are in.

Voya™ Employee Benefits is dedicated to providing the best possible benefits solutions, and can help protect your financial assets through the conversion of your group life plan coverage.

Your current term insurance coverage

Term insurance provides protection for a specific period of time and generally pays a benefit only if you die during the specified “term.” Term periods are renewed annually and your rates change when entering a new age band.

Conversion of your Group Term Life Insurance coverage

What kind of conversion insurance plan is this?
It is referred to as an individual “non-participating” whole life insurance policy.∗

Group life insurance policies contain a conversion privilege allowing insured employees, members and covered dependents to convert their group life insurance to a non-participating individual life insurance policy, without proof of good health, when coverage terminates or reduces under the group policy. Additional benefits such as the waiver of premium disability benefit, accidental death and dismemberment or accelerated benefits will not be converted.

You must apply and pay the first premium for the whole life policy within a limited time period following the date any part of your group life insurance stops. A complete description of the conversion privilege is provided in your group certificate.

What are the advantages of converting group term life insurance?
Whole life insurance policies have a guaranteed cash value. They also lock in premium payments when they are issued, so you’ll pay the same rate for life – no more worrying about increases in your premium.

The whole life policy being offered to you for conversion – at a fixed level premium – is payable to age 121, and includes the potential for cash value accumulations. The premium you will pay is based on the rate associated with how old you are at the time of conversion, plus an annual policy fee based on the amount of coverage you choose to convert.
