Boundaries Expanded for the Linden Municipal Advisory Council
Applications being accepted for four-year council terms

What:

Request for applicants to serve a four-year term on the newly expanded boundaries of the Linden Municipal Advisory Council (LMAC).

When:

Applications for seven vacancies are now being accepted. The submission deadline will remain open until all vacancies are filled.

Where:

Linden and its surrounding areas. Contact committees@sjgov.org for the legal description of the expanded LMAC boundaries.

Why:

MACs provide solutions to County departments concerning problems which may otherwise go unnoticed or unresolved. They are conduits for community input, involvement, and information which also afford additional value to residents by giving them a direct, localized voice to the County and its departments, particularly around community development.

How:

Submit online applications at <https://sanjoaquin.granicus.com/boards/forms/114/apply>.
Call 209-468-2350 or email committees@sjgov.org for more information.
