San Joaquin County to Host State of the County Exhibition at Bob Hope Theatre
Chairman Miguel Villapudua to Present Latest County Updates and Interactive Programs

Stockton, CA – The San Joaquin County Board of Supervisors is pleased to announce the upcoming State of the County Exhibition, hosted by Chairman Miguel Villapudua, on Thursday, September 12, 2024, at 2:30 PM at the historic Bob Hope Theatre in Stockton. This event is free and open to the public, offering an exciting opportunity for residents to discover new and interactive county programs, while also gaining insight into the latest updates and achievements from the past year.

The exhibition will feature a variety of booths and demonstrations from multiple county departments, showcasing the innovative programs and services that have been introduced or enhanced to better serve the community. Attendees will have the chance to engage directly with county officials, explore the impact of new initiatives, and learn how these programs are improving the quality of life for all San Joaquin County residents.

In addition to the interactive displays, the event will include a keynote address by Chairman Villapudua, who will highlight the county's accomplishments over the past year, discuss ongoing projects, and outline future goals. This address will provide valuable insights into the progress being made across various sectors, including public safety, health services, economic development, and community engagement.

"This event is a fantastic opportunity for the community to see firsthand the progress we've made and the innovative programs we're implementing to improve the lives of our residents," said Chairman Villapudua. "I encourage everyone to join us and engage with the people who are working hard to make our county a better place to live."

The State of the County Exhibition is designed to be an informative and engaging experience for all attendees, offering a closer look at the county's ongoing efforts to foster a vibrant and thriving community. Whether you're interested in public health, infrastructure, environmental sustainability, or community services, there will be something for everyone at this event.
