San Joaquin County Hosts 2026 State of the County Exhibition Today in Manteca

"United in Service • Focused on the Future" theme highlights county achievements, innovation, and strategic goals

Stockton, CA – The San Joaquin County Board of Supervisors Chairman Sonny Dhaliwal and the Board of Supervisors cordially invite members of the media and the public to the 2026 State of the County Exhibition. The event will take place today, Wednesday, October 14, 2026, from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM at the Great Wolf Lodge in Manteca.

"This is our opportunity to meet with our community and share our County's successes and the Board's vision," said Chair and Third District Supervisor Sonny Dhaliwal. "We have much to be proud of and more to look forward to."

The 2026 State of the County Exhibition offers an exclusive, firsthand look at the latest major developments, innovative programs, and strategic initiatives shaping San Joaquin County. Under this year's theme, "United in Service • Focused on the Future," Board Chair Sonny Dhaliwal and County Administrator Sandy Regalo will deliver keynote addresses highlighting recent achievements and outlining the county's future goals.

In addition to the keynote addresses, the exhibition will feature interactive booths and live program demonstrations from various county departments. These displays will showcase the innovative public services that actively improve the quality of life for San Joaquin County residents.
