Voter Registration Deadline Approaching on October 19

Conditional Voter Registration to Begin on October 20

Stockton, CA. – Monday, October 19, 2026, is the last day to register to vote, or update your voter registration information for the November 3, 2026 General Election. Residents are encouraged to register at the website <https://registertovote.ca.gov> or pick-up a voter registration card at local post offices or the San Joaquin County Registrar of Voters Office (ROV) located at 44 North San Joaquin Street, Third Floor, Suite 350, Stockton, CA 95202. In order to be a registered voter, the voter registration form must be filled out completely, signed and postmarked by October 19, 2026, or hand-delivered to the ROV's Office by 5:00 p.m. on October 19, 2026.

Conditional Voter Registration (CVR) begins Tuesday, October 20, 2026. Eligible residents who missed the October 19, 2026 registration deadline may complete a new conditional voter registration form available at the ROV's Office from October 20 – November 3, 2026 (Election Day) and at the polls on Election Day. All address updates and party changes can be done immediately allowing you to cast an in person non provisional ballot. Upon completion of the conditional registration form, a ROV representative will provide the individual with a CVR provisional ballot which must be voted at the time and location it is received. Once the conditional registration form has been processed and eligibility is verified the CVR ballot is counted. Residents may check their voter registration status at My Voter Status - California Secretary of State.
