

Election Observer Acknowledgement

General Election

November 8, 2022

Election observers are an integral part of a transparent and orderly election process. All election observers are required to read the “Election Observer Guidelines” and abide by all conditions defined in that document. Although optional, each observer is asked to sign the acknowledgment below. This document will be preserved on file at the Registrar’s office and remain accessible for a period of 22 months from the date of the election, in concurrence with the retention of all election-related materials specified in Elections Code 17300-17306.

I, _____,
