

Election Observer Acknowledgement Statewide Direct Primary Election June 7, 2022

Election Observers are an integral part of a transparent and orderly election process. All observers presenting themselves at the ROV central office, any polling place, or central count center are required to read the “Election Observer Panel Plan” with COVID Addendum included and abide by the conditions set forth in that document. Each observer must sign the acknowledgment below. This document will be on file at the Registrar’s office through the completion of the election canvass.
