

Nati Bowman is the leader we need and deserve in District 4. She brings energy, commitment and experience to the challenges and opportunities facing our community.

Nati is the founder of Partners for International Cooperation (PIC), which aids organizations in becoming 501(c)3s and has funded a solar powered farm in Kenya. She also established The Commons Community Center right here in District 4 with a food pantry, clothing closet, and home deliveries during COVID-19. Nati believes in the power of individual and collective actions put to good use locally creates a thriving community.

Nati's work as Clerk of the Board for Tracy Rural County Fire Protection District gives her a deep understanding of public entities and knowledge of our beautiful San Joaquin County. Nati is also Court Appointed Special Advocate supporting and mentoring the foster youth of San Joaquin County. Her work in a law firm representing folks hurt by unpaid wages, discrimination and sexual assault reflects a lifelong commitment to justice.

Nati is committed to bringing much needed resources to District 4. She will focus on affordable housing, protecting small businesses, revitalizing and expanding green spaces, and improving access to health and social services.
