

November 3, 2020 Presidential General Election

Election Observer Acknowledgement

Election Observers are an integral part of a transparent and orderly election process. All observers presenting themselves at the ROV central office, any Voter Service Center, or central count center are required to read the “Election Observer Panel Plan” with COVID Addendum included and abide by the conditions set forth in that document. Each observer must sign the acknowledgment below. This document will be on file at the Registrar’s office through the completion of the election canvass.
